IN A COLLEGE GARDEN

Senex. Saye, cushat, callynge from the brake,
What ayles thee soe to pyne?
Thy carefulle heart shall cease to ake
When dayes be fyne
And greene thynges twyne:
Saye, cushat, what thy griefe to myne?

Turtur. Naye, gossyp, loyteryng soe late,
What ayles thee thus to chyde?
My love is fled by garden-gate;
Since Lammas-tyde
I wayte my bryde.
Saye, gossyp, whom dost thou abyde?

GREEN BAYS

Senex. Loe ! I am he, the 'Lonelie Manne,'
Of Time forgotten quite,
That no remembered face may scanne—
Sadde eremyte,
I wayte tonyghte
Pale Death, nor any other wyghte.

O cushat, cushat, callynge lowe,
Goe waken Time from sleepe :
Goe whysper in his ear, that soe
His besom sweepe
Me to that heape
Where all my recollections keepe.

Hath he forgott ? Or did I viewe
A ghostlye companye
This even, by the dismall yewe,
Of faces three
That beckoned mee
To land where no repynynges bee ?

IN A COLLEGE GARDEN

O Harrye, Harrye, Tom and Dicke,

Each lost companion !

Why loyter I among the quicke,

When ye are gonne ?

Shalle I alone

Delayinge crye ‘ Anon, Anon ’ ?

Naye, let the spyder have my gowne,

To brayde therein her veste.

My cappe shal serve, now I ‘ goe downe,’

For mouse’s neste.

Loe ! this is best.

I care not, soe I gayne my reste.

GREEN BAYS

THE SPLENDID SPUR

Not on the neck of prince or hound,
Nor on a woman's finger twin'd,
May gold from the deriding ground
Keep sacred that we sacred bind :
Only the heel
Of splendid steel
Shall stand secure on sliding fate,
When golden navies weep their freight.
The scarlet hat, the laurell'd stave
Are measures, not the springs, of worth ;
In a wife's lap, as in a grave,
Man's airy notions mix with earth.
Seek other spur
Bravely to stir
The dust in this loud world, and tread
Alp-high among the whisp'ring dead.

THE SPLENDID SPUR

Trust in thyself,—then spur amain :

So shall Charybdis wear a grace,
Grim Ætna laugh, the Libyan plain
Take roses to her shrivell'd face.

This orb—this round

Of sight and sound—

Count it the lists that God hath built
For haughty hearts to ride a-tilt.

GREEN BAYS

THE WHITE MOTH

If a leaf rustled, she would start :

And yet she died, a year ago.

How had so frail a thing the heart

To journey where she trembled so ?

And do they turn and turn in fright,

Those little feet, in so much night ?

The light above the poet's head

Streamed on the page and on the cloth,

And twice and thrice there buffeted

On the black pane a white-wing'd moth :

'Twas Annie's soul that beat outside

And 'Open, open, open !' cried :

THE WHITE MOTH

‘ I could not find the way to God ;

There were too many flaming suns
For signposts, and the fearful road
Led over wastes where millions
Of tangled comets hissed and burned—
I was bewilder’d and I turned.

‘ O, it was easy then ! I knew

Your window and no star beside.
Look up, and take me back to you !’
—He rose and thrust the window wide.
’Twas but because his brain was hot
With rhyming ; for he heard her not.

But poets polishing a phrase

Show anger over trivial things ;
And as she blundered in the blaze
Towards him, on ecstatic wings,
He raised a hand and smote her dead ;
Then wrote ‘ That I had died instead !’

TIM THE DRAGOON

(FROM 'TROY TOWN')

BE aisy an' list to a chune
That's sung of bowld Tim the Dragoon—
Sure, 'twas he'd niver miss
To be stalin' a kiss,
Or a brace, by the light of the moon—
Aroon—
Wid a wink at the Man in the Moon !

Rest his sowl where the daisies grow thick ;
For he's gone from the land of the quick :
But he's still makin' love
To the leddies above,

TIM THE DRAGOON

An' be jabbers ! he'll tache 'em the thrick—

Avick—

Niver doubt but he'll tache 'em the thrick !

'Tis by Tim the dear saints 'll set sthore,

And 'ull thrate him to whisky galore :

For they've only to sip

But the tip of his lip

An' bedad ! they'll be askin' for more—

Asthore—

By the powers, they'll be shoutin' ' Ancore !'

KENMARE RIVER

'Tis pretty to be in Ballinderry,
 'Tis pretty to be in Ballindoon,
But 'tis prettier far in County Kerry
 Coortin' under the bran' new moon,
 Aroon, Aroon !

'Twas there by the bosom of blue Killarney
 They came by the hundther' a-coortin' me ;
Sure I was the one to give back their blarney,
 An' merry was I to be fancy-free.

But niver a step in the lot was lighter,
 An' divvle a boulder among the bhoys,
Than Phelim O'Shea, me dynamither,
 Me illigant arthist in clock-work toys.

KENMARE RIVER

'Twas all for love he would bring his figgers
Of imminent statesmen, in toy machines,
An' hould me hand as he pulled the thriggers
An' scattered the thraytors to smithereens.

An' to see the Queen in her Crystial Pallus
Fly up to the roof, an' the windeys broke!
And all with divvle a trace of malus,—
But he was the bhoy that enjoyed his joke!

Then O, but his cheek would flush, an' 'Bridget,'
He 'd say, 'Will yez love me?' But I 'd be coy
And answer him, 'Arrah now, dear, don't fidget!'
Though at heart I loved him, me arthist bhoy!

One night we stood by the Kenmare river,
An' 'Bridget, creina, now whist,' said he,
'I'll be goin' to-night, an' may be for iver;
Open your arms at the last to me.'

GREEN BAYS

'Twas there by the banks of the Kenmare river

He took in his hands me white, white face,
An' we kissed our first an' our last for iver—
For Phelim O'Shea is disparsed in space.

'Twas pretty to be by blue Killarney,

'Twas pretty to hear the linnets's call,
But whist ! for I cannot attind their blarney,
Nor whistle in answer at all, at all.

For the voice that he swore 'ud out-call the linnet's

Is cracked intoirely, and out of chune,
Since the clock-work missed it by thirteen minutes
An' scattered me Phelim around the moon,
Aroon, Aroon !

LADY JANE

LADY JANE

Sapphics

DOWN the green hill-side fro' the castle window
Lady Jane spied Bill Amaranth a-workin' ;
Day by day watched him go about his ample
Nursery garden.

Cabbages thriv'd there, wi' a mort o' green-stuff—
Kidney beans, broad beans, onions, tomatoes,
Artichokes, seakale, vegetable marrows,
Early potatoes.

Lady Jane cared not very much for all these :
What she cared much for was a glimpse o' Willum
Strippin' his brown arms wi' a view to horti-
-Cultural effort.

GREEN BAYS

Little guessed Willum, never extra-vain, that
Up the green hill-side, i' the gloomy castle,
Feminine eyes could so delight to view his Noble proportions.

Only one day while, in an innocent mood,
Moppin' his brow ('cos 'twas a trifle sweaty)
With a blue kerchief—lo, he spies a white 'un
Coyly responding.

Oh, delightful Love! Not a jot do you care
For the restrictions set on human inter——course by cold-blooded social refiners;
Nor do I, neither.

Day by day, peepin' fro' behind the bean-sticks,
Willum observed that scrap o' white a-wavin',
Till his hot sighs out-growin' all repression
Busted his weskit.

LADY JANE

Lady Jane's guardian was a haughty Peer, who Clung to old creeds and had a nasty temper ;
Can we blame Willum that he hardly cared to Risk a refusal ?

Year by year found him busy 'mid the bean-sticks,
Wholly uncertain how on earth to take steps.
Thus for eighteen years he beheld the maiden
Wave fro' her window.

But the nineteenth spring, i' the Castle post-bag,
Came by book-post Bill's catalogue o' seedlings
Mark'd wi' blue ink at ' Paragraphs relatin'
Mainly to Pumpkins.'

'W. A. can,' so the Lady Jane read,
'Strongly commend that very noble Gourd, the Lady Jane, first-class medal, ornamental ;
Grows to a great height.'

GREEN BAYS

Scarce a year arter, by the scented hedgerows—
Down the mown hill-side, fro' the castle gateway—
Came a long train and, i' the midst, a black bier,
Easily shouldered.

‘Whose is yon corse that, thus adorned wi’ gourd-
leaves,
Forth ye bear with slow step?’ A mourner answer’d,
‘’Tis the poor clay-cold body Lady Jane grew Tired to abide in.’

‘Delve my grave quick, then, for I die to-morrow.
Delve it one furlong fro’ the kidney bean-sticks,
Where I may dream she ’s goin’ on precisely
As she was used to.’

Hardly died Bill when, fro’ the Lady Jane’s grave,
Crept to his white death-bed a lovely pumpkin :
Climb’d the house wall and over-arched his head wi’
Billowy verdure.

LADY JANE

Simple this tale !—but delicately perfumed
As the sweet roadside honeysuckle. That's why,
Difficult though its metre was to tackle,
I'm glad I wrote it.

GREEN BAYS

A TRIOLET

To commemorate the virtue of Homœopathy in restoring one apparently drowned

Love, that in a tear was drown'd,
Lives revived by a tear.
Stella heard them mourn around
Love that in a tear was drown'd,
Came and coax'd his dripping swound,
Wept 'The fault was mine, my dear !'
Love, that in a tear was drown'd,
Lives, revived by a tear.

AN OATH

AN OATH

(FROM 'TROY TOWN')

A MONTH ago Lysander pray'd
To Jove, to Cupid, and to Venus,
That he might die if he betray'd
A single vow that pass'd between us.

Ah, careless gods, to hear so ill
And cheat a maid on you relying !
For false Lysander's thriving still,
And 'tis Corinna lies a-dying.

GREEN BAYS

UPON GRACIOSA, WALKING AND TALKING

(FROM 'TROY TOWN')

WHEN as abroad, to greet the morn,
I mark my Graciosa walk,
In homage bends the whisp'ring corn,
 Yet to confess
 Its awkwardness
Must hang its head upon the stalk.

And when she talks, her lips do heal
The wounds her lightest glances give :—
In pity then be harsh, and deal
 Such wounds that I
 May hourly die,
And, by a word restoréd, live.

LOVE'S FRONTIER-POST

WRITTEN

UPON

(FROM 'TROY TOWN')

TOILING love, loose your pack,
All your sighs and tears unbind :
Care's a ware will break a back,
Will not bend a maiden's mind.

In this State a man shall need
Neither priest nor law giver :
Those same lips that are his creed
Shall confess their worshipper.

All the laws he must obey,
Now in force and now repeal'd,
Shift in eyes that shift as they,
Till alike with kisses seal'd.

TITANIA

BY LORD T——N

So bluff Sir Leolin gave the bride away :
And when they married her, the little church
Had seldom seen a costlier ritual.
The coach and pair alone were two-pound-ten,
And two-pound-ten apiece the wedding-cakes ;—
Three wedding-cakes. A Cupid poised a-top
Of each hung shivering to the frosted loves
Of two fond cushats on a field of ice,
As who should say 'I see you !'—Such the joy
When English-hearted Edwin swore his faith
With Mariana of the Moated Grange.

For Edwin, plump head-waiter at The Cock,
Grown sick of custom, spoilt of plenitude,
Lacking the finer wit that saith, 'I wait,
'They come ; and if I make them wait, they go,'

TITANIA

Fell in a jaundiced humour petulant-green,
Watched the dull clerk slow-rounding to his cheese,
Flicked a full dozen flies that flecked the pane—
All crystal-cheated of the fuller air,
And shaped his gathering choler to this head :—

‘ Custom ! And yet what profit of it all ?
The old order changeth yielding place to new,
To me small change, and this the Counter-change
Of custom beating on the self-same bar—
Change out of chop. Ah me ! the talk, the tip,
The would-be-evening should-be-mourning suit,
The forged solicitude for petty wants
More petty still than they,—all these I loathe,
Learning they lie who feign that all things come
To him that waiteth. I have waited long,
And now I go, to mate me with a bride
Who is aweary waiting, even as I ! ’

GREEN BAYS

But when the amorous moon of honeycomb
Was over, ere the matron-flower of Love—
Step-sister of To-morrow's marmalade—
Swooned scentless, Mariana found her lord
Did something jar the nicer feminine sense
With usage, being all too fine and large,
Instinct of warmth and colour, with a trick
Of blunting 'Mariana's' keener edge
To 'Mary Ann'—the same but not the same :
Whereat she girded, tore her crisped hair,
Called him 'Sir Churl,' and ever calling 'Churl !'
Drove him to Science, then to Alcohol,
To forge a thousand theories of the rocks,
Then somewhat else for thousands dewy cool,
Wherewith he sought a more Pacific isle
And there found love, a duskier love than hers.

MEASURE FOR MEASURE

MEASURE FOR MEASURE

BY O——R K——M

WAKE ! for the closed Pavilion doors have kept
Their silence while the white-eyed Kaffir slept,
And wailed the Nightingale with 'Jug, jug, jug !'
Whereat, for empty cup, the White Rose wept.

Enter with me where yonder door hangs out
Its Red Triangle to a world of drought,
Inviting to the Palace of the Djinn,
Where Death, Aladdin, waits as Chuckeroût.

Methought, last night, that one in suit of woe
Stood by the Tavern-door and whispered, 'Lo,
The Pledge departed, what avails the Cup ?
Then take the Pledge and let the Wine-cup go.'

GREEN BAYS

But I : ' For every thirsty soul that drains
This Anodyne of Thought its rim contains—

Free-will the can, Necessity the must,
Pour off the must, and, see, the can remains.

' Then, pot or glass, why label it "With Care" ?
Or why your Sheepskin with my Gourd compare ?

Lo ! here the Bar and I the only Judge :—
O, Dog that bit me, I exact an hair !'

We are the Sum of things, who jot our score
With Cæsar's clay behind the Tavern door :

And Alexander's armies—where are they,
But gone to Pot—that Pot you push for more ?

And this same Jug I empty, could it speak,
Might whisper that itself had been a Beak

And dealt me Fourteen Days 'without the Op.'—
Your Worship, see, my lip is on your cheek.

MEASURE FOR MEASURE

Yourself condemned to three score years and ten,
Say, did you judge the ways of other men ?

Why, now, sir, you are hourly filled with wine,
And has the clay more licence now than then ?

Life is a draught, good sir ; its brevity
Gives you and me our measures, and thereby

Has docked your virtue to a tankard's span,
And left of my criterion—a Cri' !

GREEN BAYS

RETROSPECTION

AFTER C. S. C.

WHEN the hunter-star Orion
 (Or, it may be, Charles his Wain)
Tempts the tiny elves to try on
 All their little tricks again ;
When the earth is calmly breathing
 Draughts of slumber undefiled,
And the sire, unused to teething,
 Seeks for errant pins his child ;

When the moon is on the ocean,
 And our little sons and heirs
From a natural emotion
 Wish the luminary theirs ;

RETROSPECTION

Then a feeling hard to stifle,
Even harder to define,
Makes me feel I'd give a trifle
For the days of Auld Lang Syne.

James—for we have been as brothers
(Are, to speak correctly, twins),
Went about in one another's
Clothing, bore each other's sins,
Rose together, ere the pearly
Tint of morn had left the heaven,
And retired (absurdly early)
Simultaneously at seven—

James, the days of yore were pleasant.
Sweet to climb for alien pears
Till the irritated peasant
Came and took us unawares ;

GREEN BAYS

Sweet to devastate his chickens,
As the ambush'd catapult
Scattered, and the very dickens
Was the natural result ;

Sweet to snare the thoughtless rabbit ;
Break the next-door neighbour's pane ;
Cultivate the smoker's habit
On the not-innocuous cane ;
Leave the exercise unwritten ;
Systematically cut
Morning school, to plunge the kitten
In his bath, the water-butt.

Age, my James, that from the cheek of Beauty steals its rosy hue,
Has not left us much to speak of :
But 'tis not for this I rue.

RETROSPECTION

Beauty with its thousand graces,
Hair and tints that will not fade,
You may get from many places
Practically ready-made.

No ; it is the evanescence
Of those lovelier tints of Hope—
Bubbles, such as adolescence
Joys to win from melted soap—
Emphasizing the conclusion
That the dreams of Youth remain
Castles that are An delusion
(Castles, that 's to say, in Spain).

Age thinks ' fit,' and I say ' fiat.'
Here I stand for Fortune's butt,
As for Sunday swains to shy at Stands the stoic coco-nut.

GREEN BAYS

If you wish it put succinctly,
Gone are all our little games ;
But I thought I'd say distinctly
What I feel about it, James.

WHY THIS VOLUME IS SO THIN

WHY THIS VOLUME IS SO THIN

IN youth I dreamed, as other youths have dreamt,
Of love, and thrummed an amateur guitar
To verses of my own,—a stout attempt
To hold communion with the Evening Star
I wrote a sonnet, rhymed it, made it scan.
Ah me ! how trippingly those last lines ran.—

*O Hesperus ! O happy star ! to bend
O'er Helen's bosom in the tranced vest,
To watch the hours heave by upon her breast,
And at her parted lip for dreams attend—
If dawn defraud thee, how shall I be deemed,
Who house within that bosom, and am dreamed ?*

GREEN BAYS

For weeks I thought these lines remarkable ;

For weeks I put on airs and called myself
A bard : till on a day, as it befell,

I took a small green Moxon from the shelf
At random, opened at a casual place,
And found my young illusions face to face

With this :—‘ Still steadfast, still unchangeable,

*Pillow’d upon my fair Love’s ripening breast
To feel for ever its soft fall and swell,*

*Anake for ever in a sweet unrest ;
Still, still to hear her tender-taken breath,
And so live ever,—or else swoon to death.’*

O gulf not to be crossed by taking thought !

O heights by toil not to be overcome !
Great Keats, unto your altar straight I brought
My speech, and from the shrine departed dumb.
—And yet sometimes I think you played it hard
Upon a rather hopeful minor bard.

NUGAE OXONIENSES

TWILIGHT

TWILIGHT

By W—LL—M C—WP—R

'Tis evening. See with its resorting throng
Rude Carfax teems, and waistcoats, visited
With too-familiar elbow, swell the curse
Vortiginous. The boating man returns,
His rawness growing with experience—
Strange union ! and directs the optic glass
Not unresponsive to Jemima's charms,
Who wheels obdurate, in his mimic chaise
Perambulant, the child. The gouty cit,
Asthmatical, with elevated cane
Pursues the unregarding tram, as one
Who, having heard a hurdy-gurdy, girds
His loins and hunts the hurdy-gurdy-man,
Blaspheming. Now the clangorous bell proclaims

GREEN BAYS

The Times or Chronicle, and Rauca screams
The latest horrid murder in the ear
Of nervous dons expectant of the urn
And mild domestic muffin.

To the Parks

Drags the slow Ladies' School, consuming time
In passing given points. Here glow the lamps,
And tea-spoons clatter to the cosy hum
Of scientific circles. Here resounds
The football-field with its discordant train,
The crowd that cheers but not discriminates,
As ever into touch the ball returns
And shrieks the whistle, while the game proceeds
With fine irregularity well worth
The paltry shilling.—

Draw the curtains close

While I resume the night-cap dear to all
Familiar with my illustrated works.

WILLALOO

WILLALOO

By E. A. P.

In the sad and sodden street,
 To and fro,
Flit the fever-stricken feet
Of the freshers as they meet,
 Come and go,
Ever buying, buying, buying
Where the shopmen stand supplying,
 Vying, vying
 All they know,
While the Autumn lies a-dying
 Sad and low

As the price of summer suitings when the winter
 breezes blow,

GREEN BAYS

Of the summer, summer suitings that are standing in a row

On the way to Jericho.

See the freshers as they row

To and fro,

Up and down the Lower River for an afternoon or so—

(For the deft manipulation

Of the never-resting oar,

Though it lead to approbation,

Will induce excoriation)—

They are infinitely sore,

Keeping time, time, time

In a sort of Runic rhyme

Up and down the way to Iffley in an afternoon or so :

(Which is slow).

Do they blow ?

WILLALOO

'Tis the wind and nothing more,
'Tis the wind that in Vacation has a tendency to go :
But the coach's objurgation and his tendency to ' score '
Will be sated—nevermore.

See the freshers in the street,
 The élite !
Their apparel how unquestionably neat !
How delighted at a distance,
 Inexpensively attired,
I have wondered with persistence
At their butterfly existence !
 How admired !
And the payment—O, the payment !
It is tardy for the raiment :
Yet the haberdasher gloats as he sells,
 And he tells,

GREEN BAYS

‘ This is best
To be dress’d
Rather better than the rest,
To be noticeably drest,
To be swells,
To be swells, swells, swells, swells,
Swells, swells, swells,
To be simply and indisputably swells.’

See the freshers one or two,
Just a few,
Now on view,
Who are sensibly and innocently new ;
How they cluster, cluster, cluster
Round the rugged walls of Worcester !
See them stand,
Book in hand,
In the garden ground of John’s !
How they dote upon their Dons !

WILLALOO

See in every man a Blue !

It is true

They are lamentably few ;

But I spied

Yesternight upon the staircase just a pair of boots outside

Upon the floor,

Just a little pair of boots upon the stairs where I reside,

Lying there and nothing more ;

And I swore

While these dainty twins continued sentry by the chamber door

That the hope their presence planted should be with me evermore,

Should desert me—nevermore.

GREEN BAYS

THE SAIR STROKE

*O waly, waly, my bonnie crew
Gin ye maun bumpit be !
And waly, waly, my Stroke sae true,
Ye leuk unpleasauntlie !*

*O hae ye suppit the sad sherrie
That gars the wind gae soon ;
Or hae ye pu'd o' the braw bird's-e'e,
Ye be sae stricken down ?*

*I hae na suppit the sad sherrie,
For a' my heart is sair ;
For Keiller's still i' the bonnie Dundee,
And his is halesome fare.*

THE SAIR STROKE

But I hae slain our gude Captain,
That c'uld baith shout and sweer,
And ither twain put out o' pain—
The Scribe and Treasurere.

There's ane lies stark by the meadow-gate,
And twa by the black, black brig:
And waefu', waefu', was the fate
That gar'd them there to lig!

They waked us soon, they warked us lang,
Wearily did we greet;
'Should he abraide' was a' our sang,
Our food but butcher's-meat.

We hadna train'd but ower a week,
A week, but barely twa,
Three sonsie steeds they fared to seek,
That mightna gar them fa'.

GREEN BAYS

They 've ta'en us ower the lang, lang coorse,
And wow ! but it was wark ;
And ilka coach he sware him hoorse,
That ilka man s'uld hark.

Then upped and spake our pawkie bow,
—O, but he wasna late !
' Now who shall gar them cry Enow,
That gang this fearsome gate ?'

Syne he has ta'en his boatin' cap,
And cast the keevils in,
And wha but me to gae (God hap !)
And stay our Captain's din ?

I stayed his din by the meadow-gate,
His feres' by Nuneham brig,
And waefu', waefu', was the fate
That gar'd them there to lig !

THE SAIR STROKE

O, waly to the welkin's top !

And waly round the braes !

And waly all about the shop

(To use a Southron phrase).

Rede ither crews be debonair,

But we've a weird to dree,

I wis we maun be bumpit sair

By boaties two and three :

Sing stretchers of yew for our Toggere,

Sith we maun bumpit be !

GREEN BAYS

THE DOOM OF THE ESQUIRE BEDELL

ADOWN the torturing mile of street
I mark him come and go,
Thread in and out with tireless feet
The crossings to and fro ;
A soul that treads without retreat
A labyrinth of woe.

Palsied with awe of such despair,
All living things give room,
They flit before his sightless glare
As horrid shapes, that loom
And shriek the curse that bids him bear
The symbol of his doom.

THE DOOM OF THE ESQUIRE BEDELL

The very stones are coals that bake
And scorch his fevered skin ;
A fire no hissing hail may slake
Consumes his heart within.
Still must he hasten on to rake
The furnace of his sin.

Still forward ! forward ! For he feels Fierce claws that pluck his breast,
And blindly beckon as he reels
Upon his awful quest :
For there is that behind his heels
Knows neither ruth nor rest.

The fiends in hell have flung the dice ;
The destinies depend
On feet that run for fearful price,
And fangs that gape to rend ;

GREEN BAYS

And still the footsteps of his Vice

Pursue him to the end :—

The feet of his incarnate Vice

Shall dog him to the end.

The elementary laws never apologise : neither do
I apologise.

I find letters from the Dean dropt on my table—and every one is signed by the Dean’s name—

And I leave them where they are ; for I know that as long as I stay up

Others will punctually come for ever and ever.

I am one who goes to the river,

I sit in the boat and think of ‘life’ and of ‘time.’

GREEN BAYS

How life is much, but time is more ; and the beginning is everything,

But the end is something.

I loll in the Parks, I go to the wicket, I swipe.

I see twenty-two young men from Foster's watching me, and the trousers of the twenty-two young men,

I see the Balliol men en masse watching me.—The Hottentot that loves his mother, the un-tutored Bedowee, the Cave-man that wears only his certificate of baptism, and the shaggy Sioux that hangs his testamur with his scalps.

I see the Don who ploughed me in Rudiments watching me : and the wife of the Don who ploughed me in Rudiments watching me.

I see the rapport of the wicket-keeper and umpire.

I cannot see that I am out.

Oh ! you Umpires !

‘ BEHOLD ! I AM NOT ONE THAT GOES . . . ’

I am not one who greatly cares for experience, soap, bull-dogs, cautions, majorities, or a graduated Income-Tax,

The certainty of space, punctuation, sexes, institutions, copiousness, degrees, committees, delicat-
tesse, or the fetters of rhyme—

For none of these do I care : but least for the fetters of rhyme.

Myself only I sing. Me Imperturbe ! Me
Prononcé !

Me progressive and the depth of me progressive,
And the βάθος, Anglicé bathos

Of me chanting to the Public the song of Simple Enumeration.

CALIBAN UPON RUDIMENTS¹

OR

AUTOSCHEDIASTIC THEOLOGY IN A HOLE

RUDIMENTS, Rudiments, and Rudiments!

'Thinketh one made them i' the fit o' the blues.

'Thinketh one made them with the 'tips' to match,

But not the answers; 'doubteth there be none,

Only Guides, Helps, Analyses, such as that:

Also this Beast, that groweth sleek thereon,

And snow-white bands that round the neck o' the same.

'Thinketh, it came of being ill at ease.

'Hath heard that Satan finds some mischief still

For idle hands, and the rest o't. That's the case.

CALIBAN UPON RUDIMENTS

Also 'hath heard they pop the names i' the hat,
Toss out a brace, a dozen stick inside ;
Let forty through and plough the sorry rest.

'Thinketh, such shows nor right nor wrong in them,
Only their strength, being made o' sloth i' the main—
'Am strong myself compared to yonder names
O' Jewish towns i' the paper. Watch th' event—
'Let twenty pass, 'have a shot at twenty-first,
'Miss Ramoth-Gilead, 'take Jehoiakim,
'Let Abner by and spot Melchizedek,
Knowing not, caring not, just choosing so,
As it likes me each time, I do : so they.

'Saith they be terrible : watch their feats i' the Viva !
One question plays the deuce with six months' toil.
Aha, if they would tell me ! No, not they !
There is the sport : ' come read me right or die !'

GREEN BAYS

All at their mercy,—why they like it most
When—when—well, never try the same shot twice !
'Hath fled himself and only got up a tree.

'Will say a plain word if he gets a plough.

SOLVITUR ACRIS HIEMPS

My Juggins, see : the pasture green,
Obeying Nature's kindly law,
Renews its mantle ; there has been
A thaw.

The frost-bound earth is free at last,
That lay 'neath Winter's sullen yoke
'Till people felt it getting past
A joke.

Now forth again the Freshers fare,
And get them tasty summer suits
Wherein they flaunt afield and scare
The brutes.

GREEN BAYS

Again the stream suspects the keel ;
 Again the shrieking captain drops
Upon his crew ; again the meal
 Of chops

Divides the too-laborious day ;
 Again the Student sighs o'er Mods,
And prompts his enemies to lay
 Long odds.

Again the shopman spreads his wiles ;
 Again the organ-pipes, unbound,
Distract the populace for miles Around.

Then, Juggins, ere December's touch
 Once more the wealth of Spring reclaim,
Since each successive year is much
 The same ;

SOLVITUR ACRIS HIEMPS

Since too the monarch on his throne
In purple lapped and frankincense,
Who from his infancy has blown Expense,

No less than he who barely gets
The boon of out-of-door relief,
Must see desuetude,—come let's
Be brief.

At those resolves last New Year's Day
The easy gods indulgent wink.
Then downward, ho !—the shortest way
Is drink.

A LETTER

*Addressed during the Summer Term of 1888 by MR. ALGERNON
DEXTER, Scholar of — College, Oxford, to his cousin, MISS
KITTY TREMAYNE, at — Vicarage, Devonshire.*

AFTER W. M. P.

DEAR KITTY,

At length the term's ending ;
I'm in for my Schools in a week ;
And the time that at present I'm spending
On you should be spent upon Greek :
But I'm fairly well read in my Plato,
I'm thoroughly red in the eyes,
And I've almost forgotten the way to
Be healthy and wealthy and wise.
So 'the best of all ways'—why repeat you
The verse at 2.30 a.m.,
When I'm stealing an hour to entreat you
Dear Kitty, to come to Commem. ?

A LETTER

Oh, come ! You shall rustle in satin
Through halls where Examiners trod :
Your laughter shall triumph o'er Latin
In lecture-room, garden, and quad.
They stand in the silent Sheldonian—
Our orators, waiting—for you,
Their style guaranteed Ciceronian,
Their subject—‘ the Ladies in Blue.’
The Vice sits arrayed in his scarlet ;
He's pale, but they say he dissem-
bles by calling his Beadle a ‘ varlet ’
Whenever he thinks of Commem.

There are dances, flirtations at Nuneham,
Flower-shows, the procession of Eights :
There's a list stretching usque ad Lunam
Of concerts, and lunches, and fêtes :
There's the Newdigate all about ‘ Gordon,’
—So sweet, and they say it will scan.

GREEN BAYS

You shall flirt with a Proctor, a Warden
Shall run for your shawl and your fan.
They are sportive as gods broken loose from Olympus, and yet very em-
-inent men. There are plenty to choose from,
You 'll find, if you come to Commem.

I know your excuses : Red Sorrel
Has stumbled and broken her knees ;
Aunt Phœbe thinks waltzing immoral ;
And ' Algy, you are such a tease ;
It 's nonsense, of course, but she is strict ' ;
And little Dick Hodge has the croup ;
And there 's no one to visit your ' district '
Or make Mother Tettleby's soup.
Let them cease for a se'nnight to plague you ;
Oh, leave them to manage pro tem.
With their croups and their soups and their ague,
Dear Kitty, and come to Commem.

A LETTER

Don't tell me Papa has lumbago,
That you haven't a frock fit to wear,
That the curate 'has notions, and may go
To lengths if there's nobody there,'
That the Squire has 'said things' to the Vicar,
And the Vicar 'had words' with the Squire,
That the Organist's taken to liquor,
And leaves you to manage the choir :
For Papa must be cured, and the curate
Coerced, and your gown is a gem ;
And the moral is—Don't be obdurate,
Dear Kitty, but come to Commem.

'My gown? Though, no doubt, sir, you're clever,
You'd better leave fashions alone.
Do you think that a frock lasts for ever?'
Dear Kitty, I'll grant you have grown ;
But I thought of my 'scene' with McVittie
That night when he trod on your train

GREEN BAYS

At the Bachelor's Ball. ' 'Twas a pity,'
You said, but I knew 'twas Champagne.
And your gown was enough to compel me
To fall down and worship its hem—
(Are 'hems' wearing? If not, you shall tell me
What is, when you come to Commem.)

Have you thought, since that night, of the Grotto?
Of the words whispered under the palms,
While the minutes flew by and forgot to Remind us of Aunt and her qualms?
Of the stains of the old Journalisten?
Of the rose that I begged from your hair?
When you turned, and I saw something glisten—
Dear Kitty, don't frown; it was there!
But that idiot Delane in the middle
Bounced in with 'Our dance, I—ahem!'
And—the rose you may find in my Liddell
And Scott when you come to Commem.

A LETTER

Then, Kitty, let 'yes' be the answer.

We'll dance at the 'Varsity Ball,

And the morning shall find you a dancer

In Christ Church or Trinity hall.

And perhaps, when the elders are yawning

And rafters grow pale overhead

With the day, there shall come with its dawning

Some thought of that sentence unsaid.

Be it this, be it that—'I forget,' or

'Was joking'—whatever the fem-

-inine fib, you'll have made me your debtor

And come,—you will come? to Commem.

ANECDOTE FOR FATHERS

ANECDOTE FOR FATHERS

Designed to show that the practice of lying is not confined to children

BY THE LATE W. W. (OF H.M. INLAND REVENUE SERVICE)

AND is it so ? Can Folly stalk
And aim her unrespecting darts
In shades where grave Professors walk
And Bachelors of Arts ?

I have a boy, not six years old,
A sprite of birth and lineage high :
His birth I did myself behold,
His caste is in his eye.

And oh ! his limbs are full of grace,
His boyish beauty past compare :
His mother's joy to wash his face,
And mine to brush his hair !

GREEN BAYS

One morn we strolled on our short walk,
With four goloshes on our shoes,
And held the customary talk
That parents love to use.

(And oft I turn it into verse,
And write it down upon a page,
Which, being sold, supplies my purse
And ministers to age.)

So as we paced the curving High,
To view the sights of Oxford town
We raised our feet (like Nelly Bly),
And then we put them down.

‘Now, little Edward, answer me’—
I said, and clutched him by the gown—
‘At Cambridge would you rather be,
Or here in Oxford town?’

ANECDOTE FOR FATHERS

My boy replied with tiny frown
(He'd been a year at Cavendish),
'I'd rather dwell in Oxford town,
If I could have my wish.'

'Now, little Edward, say why so ;
My little Edward, tell me why.'
'Well, really, Pa, I hardly know.'
'Remarkable !' said I :

'For Cambridge has her " King's Parade,"
And much the more becoming gown ;
Why should you slight her so,' I said,
'Compared with Oxford town ?'

At this my boy hung down his head,
While sterner grew the parent's eye ;
And six-and-thirty times I said,
'Come, Edward, tell me why ?'

GREEN BAYS

For I loved Cambridge (where they deal—
How strange!—in butter by the yard) ;
And so, with every third appeal,
I hit him rather hard.

Twelve times I struck, as may be seen
(For three times twelve is thirty-six),
When in a shop the Magazine
His tearful sight did fix.

He saw it plain, it made him smile,
And thus to me he made reply :—
'At Oxford there's a Crocodile ;¹
And that's the reason why.'

ANECDOTE FOR FATHERS

Oh, Mr. Editor ! my heart
For deeper lore would seldom yearn,
Could I believe the hundredth part
Of what from you I learn.

UNITY PUT QUARTERLY¹

By A. C. S.

THE Centuries kiss and commingle,
Cling, clasp, and are knit in a chain ;
No cycle but scorns to be single,
No two but demur to be twain,
'Till the land of the lute and the love-tale
Be bride of the boreal breast,
And the dawn with the darkness shall dovetail,
The East with the West.

The desire of the grey for the dun nights
Is that of the dun for the grey ;
The tales of the Thousand and One Nights
Touch lips with 'The Times' of to-day.—

¹ Suggested by an Article in the Quarterly Review, enforcing the unity of literature ancient and modern, and the necessity of providing a new School of Literature in Oxford.

UNITY PUT QUARTERLY

Come, chasten the cheap with the classic ;
Choose, Churton, thy chair and thy class,
Mix, melt in the must that is Massie
The beer that is Bass !

Omnipotent age of the Aorist !
Infinitely freely exact !—
As the fragrance of fiction is fairest
If frayed in the furnace of fact—
Though nine be the Muses in number
There is hope if the handbook be one,—
Dispelling the planets that cumber
The path of the sun.

Though crimson thy hands and thy hood be
With the blood of a brother betrayed,
O Would-be-Professor of Would-be,
We call thee to bless and to aid.

GREEN BAYS

Transmuted would travel with Er, see
The Land of the Rolling of Logs,
Charmed, chained to thy side, as to Circe
The Ithacan hogs.

O bourne of the black and the godly !
O land where the good niggers go.
With the books that are borrowed of Bodley,
Old moons and our castaway clo' !
There, there, till the roses be ripened
Rebuke us, revile, and review,
Then take thee thine annual stipend
So long over-due.

FIRE !

FIRE !

BY SIR W. S.

*Written on the occasion of the visit of the United Fire
Brigades to Oxford, 1887*

ST. GILES's street is fair and wide,
St. Giles's street is long ;
But long or wide, may naught abide
Therein of guile or wrong ;
For through St. Giles's, to and fro,
The mild ecclesiastics go
From prime to evensong.
It were a fearsome task, perdie !
To sin in such good company.

GREEN BAYS

II

Long had the slanting beam of day
Proclaimed the Thirtieth of May
Ere now, erect, its fiery heat
Illumined all that hallowed street,
And breathing benediction on Thy serried battlements, St. John,
Suffused at once with equal glow
The cluster'd Archipelago,
The Art Professor's studio

And Mr. Greenwood's shop,
Thy building, Pusey, where below
The stout Salvation soldiers blow
The cornet till they drop ;
Thine, Balliol, where we move, and oh !
Thine, Randolph, where we stop.

FIRE !

III

But what is this that frights the air,
And wakes the curate from his lair
 In Pusey's cool retreat,
To leave the feast, to climb the stair,
 And scan the startled street ?
As when perambulate the young
And call with unrelenting tongue
 On home, mamma, and sire ;
Or voters shout with strength of lung
 For Hall & Co's Entire ;
Or Sabbath-breakers scream and shout—
The band of Booth, with drum devout,
Eliza on her Sunday out,
 Or Farmer with his choir :—

GREEN BAYS

IV

E'en so, with shriek of fife and drum
And horrid clang of brass,
The Fire Brigades of England come
And down St. Giles's pass.
Oh grand, methinks, in such array
To spend a Whitsun Holiday
All soaking to the skin !
(Yet shoes and hose alike are stout ;
The shoes to keep the water out,
The hose to keep it in.)

V

They came from Henley on the Thames,
From Berwick on the Tweed,
And at the mercy of the flames
They left their children and their dames,

FIRE !

To come and play their little games
On Morrell's dewy mead.
Yet feared they not with fire to play—
The pyrotechnics (so they say)
Were very fine indeed.

VI

(P.S. BY LORD MACAULAY)

Then let us bless Our Gracious Queen and eke the Fire Brigade,
And bless no less the horrid mess they've been and gone and made ;
Remove the dirt they chose to squirt upon our best attire,
Bless all, but most the lucky chance that no one shouted ' Fire ! '

DE TEA FABULA

PLAIN LANGUAGE FROM TRUTHFUL JAMES¹

Do I sleep? Do I dream?

Am I hoaxed by a scout?

Are things what they seem,

Or is Sophists about?

Is our τὸ τί ἦν εἶναι a failure, or is Robert Browning played out?

Which expressions like these

May be fairly applied

By a party who sees

A Society skied

Upon tea that the Warden of Keble had biled with legitimate pride.

¹ The Oxford Browning Society expired at Keble the week before this was written.

DE TEA FABULA

'Twas November the third,
And I says to Bill Nye,
'Which it's true what I've heard :

If you're, so to speak, fly,
There's a chance of some tea and cheap culture, the sort recommended as High.'

Which I mentioned its name,
And he ups and remarks :
'If dress-coats is the game
And pow-wow in the Parks,
Then I'm nuts on Sordello and Hohenstiel-Schwangau and similar Snarks.'

Now the pride of Bill Nye
Cannot well be express'd ;
For he wore a white tie
And a cut-away vest :
Says I, 'Solomon's lilies ain't in it, and they was reputed well dress'd.'

GREEN BAYS

But not far did we wend,
When we saw Pippa pass
On the arm of a friend
—Doctor Furnivall 'twas,
And he wore in his hat two half-tickets for London, return, second-class.

‘ Well,’ I thought, ‘ this is odd.’
But we came pretty quick
To a sort of a quad
That was all of red brick,
And I says to the porter,—‘ R. Browning : free passes ;
and kindly look slick.’

But says he, dripping tears
In his check handkerchief,
‘ That symposium’s career’s
Been regrettably brief,
For it went all its pile upon crumpets and busted on gunpowder-leaf !’

DE TEA FABULA

Then we tucked up the sleeves
Of our shirts (that were biled),
Which the reader perceives
That our feelings were riled,
And we went for that man till his mother had doubted
the traits of her child.

Which emotions like these Must be freely indulged
By a party who sees
A Society bulged
On a reef the existence of which its prospectus had never divulged.

But I ask,—Do I dream?
Has it gone up the spout?
Are things what they seem,
Or is Sophists about?
Is our τὸ τί ἦν εἶναι a failure, or is Robert Browning
played out?

MESSRS. METHUEN beg to announce that they are about to issue, in ten volumes 8vo, an authorised collection of Mr. Gladstone's Speeches, the work being undertaken with his sanction and under his superintendence. Notes and Introductions will be added.

In view of the interest in the Home Rule Question, it is proposed to issue Vols. IX. and X., which will include the speeches of the last seven or eight years, immediately, and then to proceed with the earlier volumes. Volume X. is already published.

It will contain a large amount of new matter, and of letters which have never been published, and will be, in fact, as near as is possible at present, a full and authoritative biography of Mr. Ruskin. The book will contain numerous portraits of Mr. Ruskin, including a coloured one from a water-colour portrait by himself, and also 13 sketches, never before published, by Mr. Ruskin and Mr. Arthur Severn. Poetry

Rudyard Kipling. BARRACK-ROOM BALLADS; And Other Verses. By RUDYARD KIPLING. Fourth Edition. Crown 8vo. 6s.

'Mr. Kipling's verse is strong, vivid, full of character. . . . Unmistakable genius rings in every line.'—Times.

'The disreputable lingo of Cockayne is henceforth justified before the world; for a man of genius has taken it in hand, and has shown, beyond all cavilling, that in its way it also is a medium for literature. You are grateful, and you say to yourself, half in envy and half in admiration: "Here is a book; here, or one is a Dutchman, is one of the books of the year."'—National Observer.

'"Barrack-Room Ballads" contains some of the best work that Mr. Kipling has ever done, which is saying a good deal. "Fuzzy-Wuzzy," "Gunga Din," and "Tommy," are, in our opinion, altogether superior to anything of the kind that English literature has hitherto produced.'—Athenæum.

'These ballads are as wonderful in their descriptive power as they are vigorous in their dramatic force. There are few ballads in the English language more stirring than "The Ballad of East and West," worthy to stand by the Border ballads of Scott.'—Spectator.

'The ballads teem with imagination, they palpitate with emotion. We read them with laughter and tears; the metres throb in our pulses, the cunningly ordered words tingle with life; and if this be not poetry, what is?'—Pall Mall Gazette.

'The greatest world-poem of the nineteenth century next to "Faust." "Brand" will have an astonishing interest for Englishmen. It is in the same set with "Agamemnon," with "Lear," with the literature that we now instinctively regard as high and holy.'—Daily Chronicle.

Henley. LYRA HEROICA: An Anthology selected from the best English Verse of the 16th, 17th, 18th, and 19th Centuries. By WILLIAM ERNEST HENLEY, Author of 'A Book of Verse,' 'Views and Reviews,' etc. Crown 8vo. Stamped gilt buckram, gilt top, edges uncut. 6s.

'Mr. Henley has brought to the task of selection an instinct alike for poetry and for chivalry which seems to us quite wonderfully, and even unerringly, right.'—Guardian.

Tomson. A SUMMER NIGHT, AND OTHER POEMS. By GRAHAM R. TOMSON. With Frontispiece by A. TOMSON. Fcap. 8vo. 3s. 6d.

Also an edition on handmade paper, limited to 50 copies. Large crown 8vo. 10s. 6d. net.

'Mrs. Tomson holds perhaps the very highest rank among poetesses of English birth. This selection will help her reputation.'—Black and White.

'A very happy conception happily carried out. These "Ballads of the Brave" are intended to suit the real tastes of boys, and will suit the taste of the great majority. —Spectator. 'The book is full of splendid things.'—World.
